

The Third Sunday of Easter

A Prayer of Gratitude

Almighty God, we thank you for all the Interim Priests who have been among us through our period of transition as we sought a new Rector. They have been faithful stewards to us; bringing your word and sacraments and tending to our spiritual needs through prayer and teaching. We give you thanks for their presence and pray that your abundant blessings be always upon them, as they continue their ministry to you and your Holy Church. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Dame Julian of Norwich

Lord God, in your compassion you granted to the Lady Julian many revelations of your nurturing and sustaining love: Move our hearts, like hers, to seek you above all things, for in giving us yourself you give us all; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen (Holy Women, Holy Men, p. 363).

The Feast of Dame Julian of Norwich

On May 8, the church celebrates the Feast of Dame Julian of Norwich, a 15th-century English anchoress, mystic, and writer.

Born sometime around 1342, during the years of the second plague pandemic or Black Death, little is known about Julian's early life, even her name. When she became an anchoress (a woman who withdraws from secular life for religious purposes), she took the name "Julian" because her cell was built onto the wall of the church of St. Julian in Norwich. The church is believed to have been named, originally, for either St. Julian the Hospitaller or St. Julian of Le Mans.

At the age of 30, Julian suffered a grave illness, and on what appeared to be her deathbed, she experienced a series of visions of Christ, or "showings." When she recovered, she wrote a book about these visions, Revelations of Divine Love, which has also become known as the Short Text. This remains the earliest known book written in English by a woman. Several decades later, she began work on a second book, further exploring the meanings of her visions, which is known as the Long Text.

As an anchoress, Julian lived a solitary life, never leaving her cell. Her meals were brought to her, and she kept a small garden inside a high wall. Aside from listening through a curtained window to those who came to seek her counsel, she lived in complete isolation – although popular belief is that she kept a cat, and in art, she is often depicted with her cat.

"All shall be well, and all shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well." — Revelations of Divine Love.
