

The Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

Collect of the Day

O God, you have taught us to keep all your commandments by loving you and our neighbor: Grant us the grace of your Holy Spirit, that we may be devoted to you with our whole heart, and united to one another with pure affection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Feast of Nathan Söderb

Swedish bishop Nathan Söderblom was the first member of the clergy to receive the Nobel Peace Prize. Born Lars Olof Jonathan Söderblom, on January 15, he graduated from Uppsala University in 1883 and was ordained a priest in the Church of Sweden (Lutheran) in 1893. He earned his doctorate in theology at the Sorbonne and taught theology at the University of Uppsala until his appointment as Archbishop of Uppsala in 1914.

During the First World War, Archbishop Söderblom called on Christian leaders to work for peace and justice. He believed that all Christian church communities were called to fight unhealthy nationalism, racism, militarism and the oppression of minorities. At the same time, he proposed that Jesus' message of love disseminated from pulpits, in newspapers, and in schools to create a powerful body of Christian opinion across national borders in favor of peace.

He famously wrote in his work, The Content of Christian Faith: "For me everything is absorbed by the one big question – the question of reconciliation and healing [restoration.] Do we see God's way in the terrible chaos of this world; the way which for the human reason is a source of offense, but remains the only possible way? This way does not avoid the tragedy of human life but goes through the very middle of it."

Archbishop Söderblom took great interest in the early liturgical renewal movement among Roman Catholics, Anglicans and Lutherans. He saw a profound connection between liturgical worship, personal prayer, and social justice. In 1925 he invited Anglican, Reformed, Lutheran, and Orthodox leaders to Stockholm and together they formed the Universal Christian Council on Life and Work. His ecumenical work led eventually to the formation of the World Council of Churches in 1948.

Söderblom's advocacy for Church unity as a means toward to accomplishing world peace earned him the Nobel Peace Prize in 1930. After his death in Uppsala, Sweden, in 1931 his body was interred in Uppsala Cathedral. He is commemorated in the liturgical calendar of the Episcopal Church on July 12.

Collect for Nathan Söderblom

Almighty God, we bless your Name for the life and work of Nathan Söderblom, Archbishop of Uppsala, who helped to inspire the modern liturgical revival and worked tirelessly for cooperation among Christians. Inspire us by his example, that we may ever strive for the renewal of your Church in life and worship, for the glory of your Name; who with Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hurricane Season

The 2019 Hurricane Season is upon us. We are looking to form a group of volunteers who are willing, when we are under a hurricane watch or warning, to come to the church to help prepare the campus for the storm. If you live nearby, or are willing to come to the church under these circumstances, please speak with Fr. Tim. We will be grateful for any help you can give.

Please Help All Souls on Sundays

The positioning of our Sunday worship as a product or a marketing effort causes discomfort, but the truth is that All Souls Church (as all churches) will be judged by the quality and impression of worship by those who visit us each Sunday. We know that we must put our "best foot forward" as a welcoming gesture and a standing invitation to join us in this amazing place. We know that it is after the Mass that visitors really get to know us here at All Souls as we invite them to join us for the most loving, friendly brunch in Miami Beach. With that in mind, Fr. Tim has asked Brian Levey to join the Vestry as the liaison for Sunday Ministry. Brian will coordinate all aspects of participation such as Welcomers, Crucifer, Acolytes, Lectors, Intercessor, Eucharistic Ministers and the Altar Guild.

The schedule for these ministries will be found within this space each week and emailed to those participating. And this is where I need you. Brian and I will be reaching out and asking for help. Please consider offering yourself in service on the altar. Thanks to all who serve now! Fr. Tim

Boiled Eggs for the Homeless

Thank you for your continuing participation in this very important ministry. July 21st is our next monthly opportunity to reach out to the homeless and hungry with a gift of hard-boiled eggs. Please bring as many hardboiled eggs as you can manage for the Feed My Sheep feeding program in down-town Miami and leave them in the crate at the back of church.

We Hold in Prayer †

God of all comfort, our very present help in trouble: be near to your servants for whom our prayers are offered. Look on them with the eyes of your mercy; comfort them with a sense of your presence; preserve them from the enemy; and give them patience in their affliction. Restore them to health, and lead them to your eternal glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen †
