

The Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

Collect of the Day

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Collect for Mary, Martha and Lazarus of Bethany

Generous God, whose Son Jesus Christ enjoyed the friendship and hospitality of Mary, Martha and Lazarus of Bethany: Open our hearts to love you, our ears to hear you, and our hands to welcome and serve you in others, through Jesus Christ our risen Lord; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. (“Holy Women, Holy Men,” p. 493).

The Feast of Mary, Martha And Lazarus Of Bethany

Each year on July 29, the church celebrates the Feast of Mary, Martha and Lazarus of Bethany. These siblings, who lived in the village of Bethany near Jerusalem, are described in the gospels of Luke and John as not only being devout followers of Jesus but being his close friends as well.

There are several accounts in the gospels describing Jesus’ special relationship with Mary, Martha and Lazarus, including Jesus performing the miracle of raising Lazarus from the dead, and Mary anointing Jesus’ feet with expensive oil. But perhaps the most familiar gospel account is of an early visit Jesus made to their home, which we read about last Sunday:

“Jesus entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord’s feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, ‘Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me.’ But the Lord answered her, ‘Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her’” (Luke 10:38-42, NRSV).

“Holy Women, Holy Men” (Church Publishing, 2010) describes the devotion of Mary, Martha and Lazarus to Jesus as “an example of fidelity and service to the Lord. Their hospitality and kindness, and Jesus’ enjoyment of their company, show us the beauty of human friendship and love at its best. And the raising of Lazarus by Jesus is a sign of hope and promise for all who are in Christ” (p. 492).

We Hold in Prayer †

Hear my prayer, O Lord. In time of trouble I call You, for You will answer me. When pain and illness are my companions, let there be room in my heart for strength. When the days and nights are filled with darkness, let the light of courage find its place. Help me endure the suffering and dissolve the fear; renew within me the calm spirit of trust and peace. Hear my prayer, O Lord. Amen †

For Healing: We pray for Baby Ailia, Bob, Bronwen, Carlos, Carmela, Dana, Daphne, Darryl, Dennis, Rev. Dorenda, Fr. Errol, Gary, Glen, Greg, Baby Hunter, Jim, Karen, Deacon Katon, Ken, Rev.
